PREVENTION LEVELS AND CONSEQUENCES

Primary Prevention will include:

- programs that promote resilience, life skills and protective factors
- curriculum provision of the essential knowledge, skills and behaviours students need as described in Health and Physical Education, Personal and Social Capability and Civics and Citizenship
- discussions at the beginning of the school year, and repeated as needed, clarifying with staff, students and parents their responsibilities in regard to preventing and reporting bullying and harassment, and the process the school uses when bullying (including cyberbullying) and harassment is reported
- ensuring that learning experiences are inclusive of all students
- adherence of staff and students to actively promote the stance of no put-downs
- informing the school community about all elements to the school's approach and are regularly reminded and encouraged to report any problems
- providing students and parents with information on cyberbullying

Early Intervention will include:

- encouraging students to report bullying or harassment incidents upon themselves or others
- classroom teachers regularly reminding students to report incidents, and emphasise that reporting is not dobbing
- providing students with strategies if they were to be bullied or harassed or witness someone who is bullied or harassed

Intervention Procedures will include:

- Students or staff are to immediately notify the school's designated officer who will initiate the process of response.
- Once identified; bully, victim and witnesses are spoken with individually, and all incidents and any follow up are fully documented. Throughout this process the dignity of each person is to be respected and will follow procedural fairness. The designated officer is responsible for monitoring and maintaining this documentation.
- In the case of cyberbullying, the school may be required to contact website or phone providers or individuals requesting information to be removed or contact the police. Victims will be directed not to respond to cyberbullying and will be assisted in improving safety procedures such as changing passwords.
- Parents will be contacted and meetings will be arranged as required.
- Resolution may also include a restorative justice process that promotes each person taking responsibility for their own behaviour in order to move forward.
- Ongoing monitoring of identified bullies and victims. When necessary students will be referred to professional counselling.

Consequences of bullying or harassment may include:

- exclusion from class or specific activity/event for a set period
- exclusion from the yard for a set period
- having privileges withdrawn for a set period
- development of an individual positive behaviour management plan for a set period of time, which provides immediate consequences for any breaches and is reviewed regularly. The Plan will be communicated and discussed with student's parents who will be expected to support the implementation.
- referral to the Behaviour Management Policy and Positive Behaviour Support Guidelines for dealing with serious offences if a student continues to re-offend. This could involve a student being suspended, or in extreme cases, implementing an assisted-transfer to another school or expelled. It is important that the procedures are appropriately followed for serious offences.

COMMUNICATION

The Behaviour Management Policy in conjunction with this policy is discussed with staff, students and at parents meetings at the beginning of the school year. It is reviewed on a regular basis throughout the year to ensure consistency in its application. Incident data also will be analysed regularly. Policies are on the school's website and communicated to parents through the school newsletter and parent handbook.

ADULT OFFENDERS

All schools should follow the CECV Safe and Sound Practice Guidelines and Anti-Bullying guide for Principals and School Leaders (CECV).

RISK MANAGEMENT

Schools must record all incidents on the school risk management register. Incident data and student surveys will assist in identifying risks and will be reviewed regularly by the School's Leadership Team.
